Kungsleden recruits new Area Manager in Västerås

Kungsleden is recruiting Areli Rundqvist for the new position of Area Manager in Västerås, central Sweden. Areli Rundqvist holds a B.Sc. (Econ) and an MBA and joins Kungsleden from the City of Västerås.

Kungsleden is Västerås' biggest commercial property owner, both in terms of area and book value. The new position forms part of Kungsleden's focus on further strengthening its position in Västerås which is one of Kungsleden's strategic prioritised areas.

"I look forward to working with Areli to develop Kungsleden's initiatives in the region and I'm convinced that her experience and background will be of considerable benefit to Kungsleden's continued success in Västerås," commented Nina de Besche, Kungsleden's Regional Manager for Mälaren Valley and North.

"I am looking forward to starting my work at Kungsleden in a spirit of humility and generosity," commented Areli Rundqvist.
