Kungsleden's HR manager takes place in the management team

Kungsleden AB (publ) expands its management team with a new member. Kungsleden's HR manager, Hanna Brandström takes place in the management team with the aim to raise the level of strategic ambition in the important work of developing the organization and its employees.

Hanna has been HR manager at Kungsleden for almost two years and has been co-opted to Kungsleden's management team ever since. Prior to that, she has extensive experience from the HR work field from her years in the automotive industry such as General Motors Nordic and Opel/Chevrolet Sverige AB.

"In order for us to achieve our high set goals, it is important that we work strategically to develop our most important asset – our employees and with this appointment we further increase the strategic ambition level", says Biljana Pehrsson, CEO at Kungsleden.

"I am passionate about combining business strategies with employee and competence issues and look forward to contributing with my experience to build on the company's strong culture and values with the goal of becoming the most attractive workplace", says Hanna Brandström, HR manager at Kungsleden.
