

Press release

20 September 2013

Biljana Pehrsson recognised as Female Role Model of the Year in the Property Sector

Kungsleden's Chief Executive Biljana Pehrsson has been recognised as "Female Role Model of the Year in the Property Sector." Biljana shares this award with John Mattson's CEO Siv Malmgren.

Now in its tenth consecutive year, the award was made by the Swedish Property Federation in partnership with property magazine Fastighetsnytt. Its aim is to raise the profile of female executives, to inspire more women to take on more demanding and responsible positions.

The jury's motivation was as follows:

"Biljana Pehrsson has solid domestic and international experience in property development and investments. Her documented, far-reaching expertise and personal impact have enabled her to take on the role as Chief Executive of a major listed property company. Biljana is courageous, daring to take on new challenges—she's a role model for women in the sector."

"Receiving this award is a great honour. Many previous holders are women that I've viewed as role models, so I'm really pleased and grateful," commented Biljana Pehrsson.

For more information, please contact:

Maria Elvin, Marketing Manager, Kungsleden | tel +46 (0)8 503 05223

Detta pressmeddelande finns tillgängligt på svenska på www.kungsleden.se/pressmeddelanden

---

Kungsleden AB (publ) discloses the information in this press release according to the Swedish Securities Markets Act and/or the Swedish Financial Trading Act. The information was provided for public release on 20 September 2013 at 5:00 p.m.

Kungsleden's business concept is to own, manage and improve properties in Sweden's growth regions, and to generate sustainable high and stable returns. The focus on value creation is by satisfying customer needs for premises, managing and improving properties, and optimising the company's property portfolio. Kungsleden has been quoted on Nasdaq OMX Stockholm since 1999.